

University of Cyprus
Department of Law

20th esil sedi EUROPEAN ANNIVERSARY SOCIETY OF INTERNATIONAL LAW

ESIL Research Forum 2024 'Revisiting Interactions between Legal Orders'

Nicosia - Cyprus
18-19 April 2024

DAY 1 (Thursday, 18 April 2024)

8.30-9.30 Registration

8.45-9.15 Guided visit to the University of Cyprus Library (optional)

9.30-10.00 Welcome

Aristoteles Constantinides and Ioanna Hadjiyianni, University of Cyprus (local organizers)

Tatiana-Eleni Synodinou, Vice-Rector for Academic Affairs, University of Cyprus

Gleider Hernández, ESIL President

10.00-11.00 Keynote

André Nollkaemper, University Professor of International Law and Sustainability, University of Amsterdam

Climate change litigation in national courts in a condition of global interdependence

11.00-11.30 Coffee Break

11.30-13.15 Parallel Panels 1 and 2

Panel 1: International law between constitutionalism and pluralism: Reflections from theory and practice

Room B108 (University House 'Anastasios Leventis', Level -1)

Chair: Edouard Fromageau, University of Aberdeen

Matilde Masetti Placci, University of Edinburgh

Fragmentation through Georg Jellinek's eyes: a re-problematization of 'modern' international law

Anna Sophia Tiedeke, Humboldt University Berlin

Taking a road less travelled: A critical redescription of interactions as languages meeting in the contact zone

Max Steuer, Comenius University Bratislava and O.P. Jindal Global University New Delhi

Republican Constitutional Pluralism, Judicial Interactions, and Constitutional Courts'

Responsibility: Towards 'Race to the Top' in Fundamental Rights Protection

Julian Suarez, University College Cork

Legal pluralism in the construction of a rights of nature environmental governance model based on a relational approach

Discussant: Gleider Hernández, Catholic University of Leuven, ESIL President

Panel 2: Interactions between institutions

Room LRC 012 (UCY Library, ground floor)

Chair: Ganna Yudkivska, Academy of Advocacy of Ukraine

Guy Kelleher, University of Bristol

Towards a liberal theory of supranational integration

Ansgar Münichsdorfer, Freie Universität Berlin

Stronger Together: Inter-Organizational Cooperation in Mandate Expansion

Rita Guerreiro Teixeira, University of Helsinki

Regional Fisheries Management Organisations' Net of Legal Interactions - the case of the International Commission for the Conservation of Atlantic Tunas

Matilda Gillis, University of Cambridge

Using Democratic Dialogue Theory to Revisit the Interactions between Domestic Legislatures and International Courts on Immigration

Discussant: Christian Pippan, University of Graz

13.15-14.45 Lunch Break

14.45-16.30 Parallel Panels 3 and 4

Panel 3: Interactions between the international and domestic legal orders

Room B108 (University House 'Anastasios Leventis', Level -1)

Chair: Inga Martinkute, Vilnius University

Eleni Methymaki, Oxford University

International and domestic law at the International Court of Justice: Thinking beyond the "fact v law" binary

Van Anh Ly, Laval University

Trans-Border Protection of Human Rights under Private International Law: The Application of Forum Necessitatis and Forum Non Conveniens by National Courts

Giulio Fedele, University of Rome "Unitelma Sapienza"

The protection of European human rights in private relationships: revisiting the interaction between international and domestic legal orders through integration

Discussant: André Nollkaemper, University of Amsterdam

University of Cyprus
Department of Law

Panel 4: Reciprocal interactions between the international and EU legal orders

Room LRC 012 (UCY Library, ground floor)

Chair: Adriana Di Stefano, University of Catania

Piotr Wilinski, Erasmus University Rotterdam

Can the European Union's approach toward the intra-EU investment arbitration cases be considered merely a local standard of annulment?

Alessandro Mario Amoroso, Sant'Anna School of Advanced Studies, Pisa

The Contribution of EU "Restrictive Measures" against Russia to the development and identification of the customary law of sanctions

Nicky Touw, Open University of the Netherlands

The CSDDD: Beyond Remedies in Civil Litigation?

Marios Tokas, Geneva Graduate Institute

Litigating irregular developments in labor and climate change commitments in EU FTAs: a law of treaties and state responsibility perspective

Discussant: Anne Thies, University of Glasgow

16.30-17.00 Coffee Break

World café discussion: "Engagement and Mentoring: A Conversation with Early Career Researchers" (convened by the ESIL Early Career Coordinating Committee)

17.00–19.00 Parallel Panels 5 and 6

Panel 5: Diffusion of norms across legal orders

Room B108 (University House 'Anastasios Leventis', Level -1)

Chair: Gleider Hernández, Catholic University of Leuven, ESIL President

Lorenzo Acconciamesa, Registry of the European Court of Human Rights, Strasbourg
The Role of the ECtHR in Shaping a General Principle on Competence Distribution between States and International Courts. The Migration of the Margin of Appreciation Doctrine

Katalin Sulyok, ELTE Eötvös Lorand University, Budapest
Intergenerational equity in domestic and international climate litigation: A self-fulfilling prophecy?

Jakub Ciesielczuk, University of Nottingham
Public participation of non-State actors in the environmental governance – Transposing the right to public participation in environmental issues from the national to international level

Iona McEntee and Antonio Cardesa-Salzmann, University of Strathclyde, Glasgow
Towards the bottom-up pluralisation of public international law: revisiting the role of inter-judicial dialogues on rights of nature between courts in the Global South

Discussant: Daniel-Erasmus Khan, Bundeswehr University Munich

Panel 6: Extra-territoriality in EU and International law: an old concept in flux

Room LRC 012 (UCY Library, ground floor)

Chair: Ana Salinas, University of Málaga

Peiran Wang, Vrije Universiteit Brussel
The Extraterritoriality within the EU Restrictive Measures (Sanctions) against Russia over Russo–Ukraine War: Legality and Effectiveness

Lise Bernard-Apéré, Laval University and University of Bordeaux
Unlocking the Geographical Indications Puzzle: Navigating Legal Diversity through Objective-Driven Transposition

Fabian Lütz, University of Lausanne
Between interactions, trans-nationality and extra-territoriality – Human Rights, Discrimination and AI in the International Legal Order

Emile van der Kwast, University of Groningen
Protecting European data abroad: Towards extraterritoriality of EU law?

Discussant: Markus Gehring, University of Cambridge

19.00–21.00 Dinner Reception

DAY 2 (Friday, 19 April 2024)

8.45-9.15 Guided visit to the University of Cyprus Library (optional)

9.15-11.00 Parallel Panels 7 and 8

Panel 7: Addressing norm conflict, overlapping legal orders and the search for clarity

Room LRC 012 (UCY Library, ground floor)

Chair: Neha Jain, Northwestern University

Anne Dienelt, University of Hamburg

Prima Facie Norm Conflicts in Situations of Multilayered Legal Protection – A Dead-End Street?

Isabell Junkkari, Abo Akademi University

Fragmentary Narratives: Navigating Norm Conflict at the European Court of Human Rights

Petr Stejskal, Palacky University Olomouc

Foreign Investment as a Military Objective – Caveat in Protection or Costly Decision?

Shinya Ito, University College London

The Interaction between WTO Law and the Human Right to Food in Relation to Export Restrictions on Foodstuffs: Norm Conflict or Supportiveness?

Discussant: Markus Beham, University of Passau

Panel 8: Judicial dialogue across legal orders: potential intersections

Room B108 (University House
'Anastasios Leventis', Level -1)

Chair: Edouard Fromageau,
University of Aberdeen

Ricardo Rodrigues de Oliveira, Universidade
Catolica Portuguesa, Lisbon

Unequal before the law: Intersecting judicial reasoning and policy-making on same-sex marriages

Carolina Braglia Aloise Bertazzoli,
Central European University

Constitutionalizing economic, social, and cultural rights: forced eviction cases and the interaction between international and regional human rights laws

Yating Lin, University of Hong Kong

Judicial Dialogue in domestic and international tribunals in International Investment Law: Myth or Reality?

Julia Sochacka, University of Warsaw

Recognition and enforcement of arbitral awards in Arab jurisdictions. Is there a space for dialogue between judges and arbitrators?

Discussant: Aristoteles Constantinides,
University of Cyprus

11.00-11.30 Coffee Break

11.30-13.15 Parallel Panels 9 and 10

Panel 9: Specialised regime Interactions: human rights and environmental regimes

Room B108 (University House 'Anastasios Leventis', Level -1)

Chair: Veronika Bilkova, Institute of International Relations, Prague

Sarah Thin, Radboud University Nijmegen

From Paris with Love: What Role for International Environmental Law in the Interpretation of Human Rights Treaties?

Giorgia Pane, University of Palermo

The right to a healthy environment between national and international courts: Judicial complementarity?

Anastasios Lafaras, Watson Farley & Williams LLP and Eirini Vyzirgiannaki, University of Athens

The European Convention of Human Rights and Arbitration: a Difficult Pas de Deux?

Panagiotis A. Kyriakou, Archipel, Geneva

SLBs and environmental commitments: a paradigmatic case of synergistic relations in international law – or is it?

Discussant: Christina Binder, Bundeswehr University Munich

Panel 10: Managed complexity: Interactions across multiple regimes and/or legal orders

Room LRC 012 (UCY Library, ground floor)

Chair: Markus Gehring, University of Cambridge

Matina Papadaki, University of Athens and Stavros-Evdokimos Pantazopoulos, University of Helsinki

Capturing Tensions: Defining Ecocide at the Crossroads of Legal Orders

Andrea Jimenez Laurence, University of Copenhagen

Navigating regime entanglement: the implications for the duty to render assistance at sea

Silvia Venier, University of Trieste

Adapting to a changing climate: shedding light on international norms' complementarity and mutual supportiveness

Kumush Suyunova, Sant'Anna School of Advanced Studies, Pisa

Strategic judicial dialogue in climate change cases and the complex interaction between the ECtHR, CJEU, and national higher courts

Discussant: Ioanna Hadjiyianni, University of Cyprus

13.15-14.30 Lunch

Organizing Committee at the Law Department, University of Cyprus:

Aristoteles Constantinides, Associate Professor of International Law and Human Rights

Ioanna Hadjiyianni, Assistant Professor in EU Law and Environmental Law

Alexandros Vryonides, PhD student

Support for ESIL is provided by the ESIL Secretariat based at the Academy of European Law at the European University Institute in Florence, Italy.